

The seal of the State of Maryland is a circular emblem. It features a central shield with a white lighthouse on a brown island, set against a blue sky and water. Above the shield is a brown eagle with wings spread. Below the shield is a white banner with the Latin motto "DEFENSOR PATRIAE" and a brown cannon. The shield is flanked by the years "1785" on the left and "1878" on the right. The words "HAVRE DE GRACE" are written in white along the top arc, and "MARYLAND" is written in white along the bottom arc. The entire seal is set against a light blue background.
